The primary election Friday passed off very quiet. Democrats expressed their choice and every candidate is satisfied.

The next step in politics will be a make-up ticket by the opposing party and it is intimated that an attempt will be made to get a fusion ticket in the field.

Mt. Sterling has grown to that extent that a system of sewerage has become a necessity as a sanitary means, and our people are thinking of making the investment. The cost of putting it in when the water pipes are being put in would be much less than to wait when the cost of ditching would fall entirely on our company. An estimate should be made and propositions submitted.

Those parties directly interested in the construction of an electric railway from here to Sharpsburg will be actively engaged as soon as the weather is favorable, and if our people would be wise to their own interests they will lend their influence.

Ripley, charged with complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel, has had his trial and has been acquitted. The justice of the verdict, no man of thought would question, and Ripley is and ought to be a free man. Much interest was taken and the evidence of ex-Gov. Bradley and Judge Yost has created no little consternation in the Taylor-Finley camp. Taylor and Finley may be innocent men, but if they are their actions do not indicate it. Kentuckians will deal fairly with all men, and if justice is what these fugitives want they could get it in Kentucky.

Now that Garnet Ripley, accused of complicity in the murder of Gov. Goebel, has been acquitted by a Democratic jury, it is time for the Republican clamorers to cease their cry of persecution. Perhaps they can give us something fresh about the contemplated sudden departure of that innocent(?) abroad, W. S. Taylor, of Indiana, to a more congenial clime. It is thought that the Governor of Indiana will honor requisition papers for his return.

Some stock men are interested in getting up a fair at Mt. Sterling. If it is to be an exhibit of fine stock, farm products and machinery, we would heartily encourage the enterprise, but if only a trotting track and racecourse, we have not the time to fool with it.

NEW ORLEANS

The best time of the year to visit the Southern Metropolis is May, when nature conspires with art to make the visitor think that he has found a large corner of Paradise. There is everything in the new and modern part of the city to attract and charm the tourist that can be found in any American city, while the famous French Quarter with its "old world" atmosphere is like a visit to Europe. The convents and cathedrals and cafes—and especially the latter, are objects of interest. At these eating places the service and cooking are distinctly French. At Antoine's on St. Louis Street is popular with the Artists, and is famous for its many delicacies, while Madame Begue serves a breakfast that attracts people from all parts of the country. The numerous suburbs of picturesque beauty and historic interest may be visited on the street cars.

The Southern Baptist Convention meets in New Orleans this year in May. The railroads all make a one fare for the round trip at that time thus making it possible for any one to visit the wonderful city at the best time. Special rates at the best hotels have been arranged for. Special trains will carry crowds of people. Any one desiring to become a member of a special party with special privileges may write to J. W. HEDDEN, Mt. Sterling, Ky. You don't have to be a Baptist to be admitted on this rate.

The finest selection of drugs, as pure as can be made, choice druggists, sundries, books, stationery, paints, artists supplies, etc., are to be had at F. C. Duerson's drug store.

Thanks.

It is with a degree of modesty that we reproduce the article written by our brother editor, John C. Wood. Georgetown College has for many years been recognized as the leading educational institution of the South. It is the Alma Mater of many distinguished men of the professions, North and South. To know that a man or woman is an alumnus of this college is an open sesame to honored and lucrative positions. The year 1901 closes, going into history acknowledged to be its most successful term. September next is open to the new President, Dr. Gray, of Alabama. And if our knowledge of him is correct, the College will put on a new dress, going forward, not abrest, but as a leader among like institutions.

Miss Mary Pratt Hedden has been at home several days from Georgetown College. She will graduate this year from this famous institution of learning, which is one of the oldest and best in the South, with the A.M. degree, the highest that can be conferred by this school. Miss Hedden graduated from the Mt. Sterling High School in 1896 and entered Georgetown College in the following September for a five years' course. Although, as we have stated, this is one of the oldest colleges in the South, up to this year only two young ladies have taken the A. M. degree—Misses Ruth Bell and Anne Dudley, both of Georgetown. This year there are three young lady graduates with this degree—Miss Hedden, Miss Claudia Crompton, of Eastlake, Alabama, and Miss Mable Bagby, of Walton, Ky., making only five in the history of the college. During the five years Miss Hedden has been a pupil there the average number of pupils has reached nearly 400, and there has been an average of six A. M. graduates. There are thirty members of this year's class. Miss Hedden has been a close student, and it is a matter of great pride to her family and a source of gratification to her friends to know that she has gained the highest honors and entered upon the duties of life so well equipped for the battle. We cordially congratulate her.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

An exchange says there is one good argument for having the primary election in the Spring. The boys who were defeated still have time to put in a crop.

The residence of Col. George W. Bain, in Lexington, was damaged on Sunday by fire and water to the amount of about $2,500.

Great losses are reported because of floods in the Ohio river and its tributaries and much more is anticipated.

LION COFFEE

A LUXURY WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL!

If you went to buy a lion whelp you wouldn't accept a kitten as a substitute, even if the dealer urges you.

Now, don't accept a substitute for

LION COFFEE.

Watch our next advertisement.

You want LION COFFEE because it is LION COFFEE.

If, on the other hand, you want a coffee which, in order to hide imperfections, is "highly polished" with eggs and other preparations, then do not buy

LION COFFEE.

If LION COFFEE were common, ordinary stuff, coffee drinkers wouldn't insist on having it. It is used in millions of homes because it is the best coffee in the world for the price. If you doubt this, take a single package home and try it.

In every package of LION COFFEE you will find a fully illustrated and descriptive list. No housekeeper, in fact, no woman, man, boy or girl will fail to find in the list some article which will contribute to their happiness, comfort and convenience, and which they may have by simply cutting out a certain number of Lion Heads from the wrappers of our one pound sealed packages (which is the only form in which this excellent coffee is sold).

Winter, Long Delayed, Has Arrived.

We had begun to think winter had passed. The pastures were putting on their spring attire and the flowers were making glad our homes and many fruit trees were in bloom. But on Friday at noon began the heaviest snow storm of the winter, being probably 24 inches deep on Saturday morning. There has been an almost continuous falling since, but melting.

The storm has been severe over a large area in the north, west and south, far into Tennessee. The fall of snow and rain in the upper Ohio has been heavy, with high waters. A flood approaching that of '84, if not surpassing it, is expected, and people living on low lands are preparing to vacate their homes.

At Akron, Ohio, the snow was two feet deep.

Condemned to Death.

Reuben Quinn, colored, who murdered policeman Crumm has been found guilty at Danville, Ky., and sentenced to death. Considerable excitement is reported.

Among the subscribers to fund for the Y. M. C. A. Building at Lexington are C. J. Bronston and wife, and Dr. J. A. Stucky, who give $1,000 each, payable in four installments—1st when $15,000 is secured, others every six months.

By request of persons who failed to see him on Court Day, Cecil Wilkes will be exhibited Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. on Broadway, near public well, provided weather be suitable.

WM. E. HAN.

New Enterprise.

There are many investment companies that have launched during the past few years, all of which as we are informed are doing fine business. A gentleman and educator speaking of the business said a graduate of one of our best schools entered a bank with a $600 salary, ambitious and not satisfied he resigned and went to work for a Lexington investment company, and within three months he had earned $6,000. Not content with this result he went to Chicago where he came in contact with men of larger means and enlisted them.

We mention this to show the favor these enterprises are meeting all over the country. The most recent organization is the Lexington National Loan & Discount Company which has some features in its contracts commending it more favorably to the attention of investors. Their contract has been submitted to the National Government and has been approved. We are informed that one money institution invested in $50,000 worth of this company's coupons and that agents from different points are doing a magnificent business.

Another Independent Phone Company.

Stockholders of the Sharpsburg Home Telephone Company met at the World office Wednesday afternoon and organized by electing the following officers: President, B. T. Wright; First Vice President, W. H. Pieratt; Second Vice President, W. H. Ratliff; Secretary, B. B. Whaley; Treasurer, W. R. Knight; Board of Directors, S. S. Ralls, L. S. Rogers, J. R. Crockett, J. C. Nelson, A. W. Young, A. B. Ratliff, W. F. Saunders, A. R. Robertson and Dr. J. W. Rutherford. B. T. Wright has secured from the Fiscal Court a franchise for the company to erect, operate and maintain its wires and poles along the roads and turnpikes of this county.

In the Circuit Court on yesterday the case of J. T. Day, of Hazel Green, against the Exchange Bank was begun. The testimony for the defense was in progress when court adjourned.

Ripley Trial.

On Thursday morning in the Franklin Circuit Court Judge Cantrill gave instructions to the jury trying Garnett Ripley for conspiracy in the murder of Wm. Goebel. Two speeches on a side were made by Commonwealth and the defense and the case was given to the jury on Friday. On Saturday the jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty." Capt. Ripley was indicted by the grand jury of Franklin county, and was arraigned on Saturday, February 2. The jury before which he was tried was composed of twelve Franklin county Democrats.

Important Decision.

The United States Court of Appeals has given a black eye to the Kentucky system of "double taxation." The Louisville Trust Company owned $46,470 worth of stock in the J. B. Mattingly Company's Distillery. The Distillery Company paid the taxes on this stock, and yet the State Board of Equalization ordered the Louisville Trust Company to pay taxes on it too. The latter resisted and went to law, losing in the lower Court but winning out in the United States Court of Appeals, where it was decided that double taxation was not quite the proper thing. This just decision will apply to thousands of cases, many of which exist here, at home, where the owner of a mortgaged home is assessed for its full value, while the holder of the mortgaged note is assessed on that also. Either one or the other ought to be exempt, else a person is to be taxed on what he owes rather than on what he owns.

Christian Scientists not Liable.

At Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Judge Eugene S. Elliott in the Circuit Court decided that Christian Scientists are not liable to prosecution under the State medical law. The Court ruled that the Scientists can no more be held for practicing medicine when their means for healing is by prayer than can a minister who prays at the bedside of the sick and receives therefore a fee either directly or indirectly. The case was that of the State against Creontia Arries and Emma Nichols, Christian Scientists, who treated a child named Goenbach, afflicted with diphtheria, and which died from the disease.

Taylor's Partner in Frankfort.

Attorney Merrill Moores, of Indianapolis, recent law partner of W. S. Taylor, arrived in Frankfort on Tuesday. He was there presumably to look over the situation and to find out what steps were being taken to secure the return of his partner to the State. He says that Taylor and Reuben Miller, of Breckenridge county, are now associated in the practice of law.

After Lagrippe—What?

Usually a racking cough and a general feeling of weakness. Foley's Honey and Tar is guaranteed to cure the "grippe cough" and make you strong and well. F. C. Duerson.

Skin troubles, cuts, burns, scalds and chafing quickly heal by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is limited. Be sure you get DeWitt's, F. C. Duerson.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damages they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and it is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

Bitten by Mad Dog

Mr. Allen Kinnard, living near Vaneburg, was bitten by a mad dog that was near the last stage of the rabies. He is in such a stage of anxiety that it is feared he may lose his mind.

The worries of a weak and sick mother are only begun with the birth of her child. By day her work is constantly interrupted and at night her rest is broken by the wailing of the peevish, puny infant. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It lightens all the burdens of maternity, giving to mothers strength and vigor, which they impart to their children. In over thirty years of practice Dr. Pierce and his associate staff of nearly a score of physicians have treated and cured more than half a million suffering women. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free of charge. All correspondence is strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalid's Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Salary of a King.

When we read that King Edward has just been fixed out with a salary of something over $2,500,000 a year, and that all the little kinglets and uncles and aunts and cousins who have blue blood in their veins have been allowed to dip deep into the British treasury, there is more than ever, in the American mind, a hatred for royalty.

England is almost a republic. The King has been termed some sort of a Vermiform appendix of Parliament. He does no particular harm, and unless pomp and parade and glitter are good for the people, no great good. He can not alone start a war or stop it. He can neither take or give away public property.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy."—Mr. T. K. Houseman, Manatoway, Pa. F. C. Duerson.

Dead in Missouri.

News has been received announcing that Ben F. Thompson, formerly of Stepstone neighborhood, has killed himself at his home in Missouri, where he had lived for several years. The cause is unknown. He was a brother of S. B. Thompson, a well-known business man of Owingsville.

You will waste time if you try to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you do eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested. ### Education Bill Vetoed.

Gov. Dockery, of Missouri, has vetoed the compulsory education bill. He declared that the act interfered with the personal rights of parents and savored of paternalism on the part of the state.

Contagious Blood Poison

There is no poison so highly contagious, so deceptive and so destructive. Don't be sure you are cured because all external signs of the disease have disappeared, and the doctor says you are well. Many persons have been deceived by Mercury and have died for months or years, and produced cure—to realize when too late that the disease was only covered over and not cured.

Bogus Like. Driven from the surface again, and to their sorrow and mortification find those nearest and dearest to them have been infected by this loathsome disease, for no other poison is so surely transmitted from parent to child as this. Often a case of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula or severe skin disease, an old sore or ulcer developing in middle life, can be traced to blood poison contracted The Sin of the Parents.

In life, if it remains smoldering in the system forever, unless properly treated and driven out in the beginning. S. S. is the only antidote for this blood poison, the only remedy known that can overcome it and drive it out of the blood, and it does this so thoroughly and effectually that there is never a return of the disease to embarrass or irritate you afterwards.

SSS cures Contagious Blood Poison in any and all stages; contains no mineral to break down your constitution; it is purely vegetable and the only blood purifier known that cures the blood and at the same time builds up the general health.

Our little book on contagious blood poison is the most complete and instructive ever issued; it not only tells all about this disease, but also how to cure yourself at home. It is free and should be in the hands of everyone seeking a cure. Send for it.

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it we thrive or starve, as the blood is rich or poor. There is nothing else to live on or by.

When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.

This is health.

When weak, in low spirits, never, no spring, when rest, no rest and sleep is not, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutrient in it.

Back of the blood, is food to keep the blood rich. When I fail, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man and child.

You have not tried it, send for free sample. I have had it and will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 123 N. 2nd St., New York, N. Y., and all druggists.

Seeding Oats in the Corn Belt.

In my county, that part of the farm which is not strong enough to bring a good crop of corn is usually seeded to oats. The ground is broken in the fall or early winter and as soon as the weather will permit spring operations, the field is well harrowed, using the disk harrow, which is the best tool for the purpose. The seed is then sown in nearly all cases with the grain drill, if the ground is dry enough to insure a good covering.

Grass seed is rarely ever sown with oats in this section of the country, because of the fact that the condition of the ground, the weather, etc., will not permit early seeding. This work is usually put off until the latter part of March or April. Clover is sometimes sown with oats and has proved a very good catch crop. The clover seed is usually sown after the oats have come through the ground. Where the corn ground has not been sown to wheat, oats are sown in the spring and are generally dug. The cultivator is used for this purpose and is followed by the drag harrow. This method generally gives good results.

If farmers could secure a hardy fall or winter oat, then the oat question would not worry them during the wet spring months. I have a very good grade of winter oats and have raised them successfully for several years. Oats do not require a very deep covering, especially if sown late. Two bushels of seed per acre is the amount universally used. If oat seed is perfectly clean, the grain drill will give better results than the broadcast method, in that the crop will be more uniform and bunching, which so often occurs when the latter plan is used.

A dispatch from Washington under date of April 11, says: The Order of the Buffalo is receiving governmental recognition. The new $10 United States note will carry as its characteristic design the emblem of the buffalo. It will be known as the "Buffalo Bill." To a degree, the action of the Government is paradoxical. The buffalo is nearly extinct. So are $10 bills among members of the Order of the Buffalo, who are mindful of the fact that "No Change" is the pass word.

It is just possible that the Secretary of the Treasury did not have the Order on his mind at all when he made the selection. Just possible.

The picture used on the Buffalo Bill was made from a photograph of the stuffed buffalo in the National Museum. On each side of it are portraits of Lewis and Clark, explorers. The denomination of the bill is printed in large red letters, with the letter X crossing the letters.

A CHURCH-GOING CAT.

In the family of Dr. Augustus C. Hamilton, of Bangor, is a handsome black cat of unusual size. His big eyes gleam as yellow as the topaz in his master's mineral cabinet. The cat is unusually intelligent. He is able to skim a pan of milk as cleanly as the best milk separator ever invented.

Like his mistress, the cat is a regular attendant at the Episcopal church—that is, he goes regularly when the maid forgets to lock him up of a Sunday morning. The congregation at the Episcopal church is now perfectly hardened to the sight of a black, topaz-eyed pussy pad-paddling up the aisle and into the space within the chancel rail. The cat sits soberly and listens to the morning service. On one occasion, relates the Lewiston (Me.) Journal, he did not exactly catch the drift of the lesson and leaped softly to the pulpit top. This was just the least bit too much for the rector, and with one far-reaching wipe of his vested arm he sent the cat to the far side of the sanctuary, where he alighted on four cushioned feet and tiptoed angrily from the church.

But soon forgiving this insult, puss once more went to church. He went into the gallery and began a noiseless promenade along the balustrade. Clear to the point directly behind the minister he went. He remembered how that unfeeling person had humiliated his catship before an entire audience of his admirers. He planned a masterful revenge. But eight feet of space below the balustrade were the broad shoulders of the pastor. The distance was just about right for the leap, and the unexpected pounce of 35 pounds of cat upon a man's shoulders would naturally surprise and mortify the victim to an extent which would square matters. The cat crouched and an interested audience of worshippers watched the animal as he sharpened his claws on the railing in happy anticipation of his little surprise party. He got his balance and secured the necessary purchase for an eight-foot catapult on the minister's spotless linen vestment. Then he released. He had previously forgiven the man. He would now forget it all. And he carefully balanced his way back to the rear loft, with his tail straight in the air in a spirit of self-commendation.

ORDINANCE DID NOT PASS.

The clubwomen in one of the smaller cities to the north of here, says the Milwaukee Sentinel, started a crusade for a curfew law some time ago and gradually worked up a sentiment that resulted in ordinance being brought before the common council. The day the aldermen were to consider it the clubwomen, arrayed in their best and prepared with all the argument they could summon to their cause, went to the council chamber and took seats in the rear, waiting for an opportunity to speak. There were 25 of them and the men, looking upon them, quaked in their shoes. But the ex-mayor of the city, who didn't believe in curfew ordinances, went down and looked them over. Then he arose and addressed the council in his most dignified vein. He protested against the law as an injustice to innocent people and as an infringement on personal rights, and then he returned to the women.

"You represent the interests of the children?" he asked. They nodded in chorus. The chairman of the club committee started to speak, but the ex-mayor interrupted her.

"Whose?" he asked again. The committee consulted together, but again before the chairman got the floor the opponent of the curfew lay threw his last bomb.

"I've been looking you over," he said, "and I know enough of the town to do a census at night. There's 25 of you," he said, "and I've got the figures here to prove that altogether you represent just two children. And I've got nine myself."

The ordinance didn't pass. The clubwomen went home with their carefully prepared speeches unspoken, and the father of nine children won the day.

A NEW TOUCH STORY.

Gratitude Was on Postal Card, But Hardly on the "Influence."

"It was the usual 'touch' story," said a clerk in an unusual mood to a Washington Star writer. "This impetuous friend of mine came to me and said he had secured promise of work in Baltimore and all he needed to the world was the price of a railroad ticket and enough to assure him of a day's sustenance once he was there. I had been 'held up' before by this gentleman, and had heard of others who were fellow-sufferers, for the man's convenient memory never turned to those from whom he had borrowed, once prosperously fingered with him for a space.

"I thought, however, that as he was going to leave town it would be congenial in the end for me to let him have sufficient coin to make the journey. I took pains, though, to see that he secured a railroad ticket with part of the amount. Then I cared nothing for any extravagance he might go to with the remainder. So, the man left town and I was the center of a shower of congratulations. I didn't expect to ever meet up with the two dollars again and rather hoped I would hear no more of the man or money.

"Imagine my surprise the other morning when my mail included a communication from the departed brother.

"My dear old fellow," it began, 'pardon my delay in returning to you the loan so kindly made when I was leaving Washington. Since arriving here the press of new duties has been great and I have really no time to write a word to family or friends. Inclosed please find two dollars.'

"That sounds pretty well, doesn't it? But here's where the joke comes in, the 'communication' was a postal card."

PUZZLING TO CRITICS.

A curious apology to Mrs. Wilcox appears in a recent number of The Academy. A part of it follows: "Writing last week about Ella Wheeler Wilcox, I ought not to have spoken of the lady as 'Miss,' she is a married lady. See Wheeler, she wedded, in 1884, a Mr. Robert M. Wilcox. Her 'Drops of Water' was published in New York in 1872, and there was an English edition of that volume. I derive this information from Mr. Potter Briscoe, of Nottingham, one of those public librarians who take an interest not only in books, but in literature. 'It is difficult,' he remarks, 'to decide the "condition" of ladies unless they give the prefix "Mrs." or "Miss." It is, indeed, and still worse is the plight of the reviewer when they do not give on their title page any indication whatever of their sex. Take, for example, the little volume of verse just issued, entitled "Men of Men." "C. C. Fox Smith" appears as the name of the author; but who is to know, save by accident, that the "C" stands for "Ciesly," and that the writer is a lady not yet quite out of her teens?"

A MOUND-BUILDER'S GRAVE.

Discovered in Ohio and Supposed to Be Two Thousand Years Old.

While excavating for a cellar in Marietta, O., a few hundred feet from the famous Mound cemetery, the workmen dug into a mound builder's grave, which was supposed to be 2,000 years old. The grave was covered with three layers of heavy stones with three inches of fine white sand between each layer. When the third stone was raised, the bones of a large man were discovered. In the bones of each hand were solid copper axes. The bones crumbled on exposure for an hour. Large bits of charcoal were also found in the grave, as were the bones of wild animals supposed to have been deer. The grave was walled in on all sides, and also the top and bottom, with heavy stones. The body of the mound builder sat in an upright position, with the hands in a position as if supporting the body. The grave was 24 feet wide by 24 feet long and five feet deep, and the stones surrounding it were easily broken with the fingers, as they were very soft.

Plagued by Mosquitoes.

When Hannibal's army descended from the Alps into the valley of Lombardy, the whole force was well-nigh routed by a plague of mosquitoes, which drove men and animals almost wild with pain.

A Democrat.

The majority of the Democrats of Montgomery county spoke by their sovereign rights on Friday the 19th instant, thereby naming the candidates they wished to represent them in the fight against Republicanism this fall. I thought I was their choice, I hoped I was and had pledged my best efforts to make the fight interesting this fall. The party having chosen another will make no change in my course. I will fight for the grand old Democratic party with her representative just the same as I would for myself. I am a Democrat, and the party justly reserves the right to name her candidates and as an obedient child I submit and am ready now to do valiant work.

To my friends I am grateful for encouragement and support and to those who desired another I have the profoundest respect.

Very respectfully,
JAMES W. LOCKRIDGE.

Osteopaths In Convention.

The third annual convention of the Kentucky Association for the Advancement of Osteopathy was held in Dr. S. Morgan's office in Lexington on Saturday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Dr. R. P. Buckmaster, Frankfort.
Secretary and Treasurer—Dr. H. E. Nelson, Louisville, Ky.
Trustees—Dr. Adaline Bell, Covington; Dr. H. G. Kellogg, Mt. Sterling; Dr. H. H. Carter, Shelbyville.

Short In Their Accounts.

Chas. Brown and F. L. Canby, President and Cashier of First National Bank, in the city of Vancouver, British America, embezzled $81,000. When notified by an examiner that the bank would not open on last Saturday they went 2 miles from the city and committed suicide, each using the same pistol. Canby left the following note:

"My Dear Wife:—I feel that what I am about to do is for the best. Forgive me if you can and try to live for our dear children. God bless you all."

"Good-bye. Ned."

The Sentinel Democrat will in a few days be established in its new quarters in the basement of the Tyler-Apperson building.

PERSONAL.

Wm. Payne, of Chicago, came on Saturday to attend his father's funeral.

Miss Anna Johnson has returned from a visit to her sister at Millidgeville, Ga.

Mrs. D. M. Chenault, of Richmond, is visiting the family of her father, J. D. Reid.

Anderson Chenault and wife returned from New Mexico on Tuesday. We were pleased to see him looking so well.

Mrs. John W. Langston, of Lexington, who has been with her father, Mr. Gus Sullivan, the past week, returned to her home Saturday.

Mr. Paul Hooven and wife came on Saturday to spend a few days with the family of N. H. Trimble.

We are pleased to say that Mat C. Clay has sufficiently recovered from his injuries to be out on crutches.

The condition of Mr. N. B. Lloyd continues very critical and his demise is expected at any moment.

Nice Gift.

On Saturday last Miss Nellie Sutton, daughter of A. W. Sutton, was the recipient of a $100 check from Mr. C. Shenberg, Sioux City, Iowa, for whose daughter Miss Nellie is a name sake, with the statement that she would receive a like amount each year until she is educated. Mr. Shenberg was formerly a partner of Mrs. Sutton's father and is a very wealthy man.

RELIGIOUS.

At a Catholic congress in Chicago a protest was voted which was endorsed by the Pope by way against the growing high school system which is being fostered by the states.

Rev. E. O. Guerrant, who has been the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Wilmore for about fifteen years, sent his resignation to the church a few Sundays ago and will devote his time in the future to evangelistic work.

The meeting at the Baptist church closed on last Friday evening. Dr. John H. Boyet, of Louisville, who did the preaching, endeavored himself to our people. A clear reasoner, broad in information, eloquent and pleasing, the gospel was presented in love and power. His labors will live long and the seed sown may yield much fruit.

Dr. A. T. Robertson, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, preached two fine sermons at the Baptist church Sunday. He is raising an additional endowment of $200,000 for the Seminary and to his appeal Sunday, though the congregation on account of the weather

Regular services next Sunday morning and evening at the Baptist church, preaching by the pastor. Subject for 11 a. m. "Christ, the Destroyer." Evening subject, "Christ, a Refuge." A cordial invitation to all.

You are invited to attend the prayer meeting at the Baptist church Wednesday evening.

It is an unfeigned pleasure to welcome to the metropolis the Rev. Mr. Forest, of the Christian (or Disciples) Mission, appointed to labor permanently among the student population. As far as one can judge from a single interview, Mr. Forest is well equipped for the particular work to which he is assigned and will worthily represent his church in this city. The Christian church has grown rapidly in the United States in recent years, but up to the present time its missionary activity has been commensurate with its expansion. We are glad to see that there is likely to be a large development of missionary interest in this growing body of American

DEATHS.

KASH.—Rollin C. Kash, aged about 30 years died at Hazel Green, Ky., on Wednesday, April 17, 1901, after a long sickness with consumption. He was born and reared in the town. His father was Joseph M. Kash, deceased. His mother is a daughter of Harrison Swango. He married Miss Louisa Day, twin daughter of J. T. Day and wife, and niece of our junior editor. To them were born three children. The funeral service was held on Friday morning.

SIMRALL.—Ex-Mayor of Lexington, Joseph B. Simrall, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital in that city on Thursday afternoon, April 18, after a long sickness. He was 67 years old and always lived in Fayette county. He joined the Confederacy in September, '62 and served in the 8th Kentucky Cavalry under Gen. Morgan. He was captured in the Ohio raid. At the close of the war he returned to Lexington and engaged in business as a druggist until '95, when he was elected Mayor, having previously been Alderman for two terms. In 1870 he married Miss Ellen Harrison, who died in 1901, leaving four children. The funeral service was held Saturday. He is a brother of Dr. W. T. Simrall, of this city.

PAYNE.—George W. Payne died at his home on Stepstone on Friday morning, April 19, 1901, after a sickness of seven days with pneumonia and other complications. He was born October 12, 1838, hence was in his 63rd year. He has always lived in the neighborhood. He married Miss Adeline Woodard. To them were born six children—Ewell, Mary, Wm., Marcia Blevins, Mattie and Leslie. William lives in Chicago; Leslie has been in Paris for a few months, and the other are of this county. The funeral service was conducted at the home on Sunday morning by B. W. Trimble, who also conducted the funeral service of Mrs. Payne on Sunday morning, November 22, 1896. The burial was in Macphail in this city. For many years he has been a member of the Corinthian Christian church. He was an excellent citizen, neighborly, generous, honest and upright. As husband and father he was loving and kind. A gentleman who had lived by him for 23 years said there was no better neighbor than he. Our county has lost one whose life has been a blessing to it. His children can call him blessed. To them we extend our sympathy.

GOODPASTER.—On Thursday, April 18, 1901, at his home near Melrose, I. T. Mr. Wash Goodpaster died after a brief sickness. He was born in Bath county, Ky., in February, 1812. His first wife was a Miss Pieratt. After her death he moved to Morgan county. His second wife was a Miss Oakley of that county. To them were born eight children, four of whom are living. One of these is Mrs. Mark Ferguson, of this county. She died in 1862. In 1865 he married Miss Elizabeth Amyn, near Hazel Green. Of their four children, three—Peter, Robert and Joe—survive him. For 15 years he has been a widower. In 1865 he became a citizen of this county, living here until about 1895 when he went to Indian Territory. His remains, accompanied by his son Peter, arrived in this city on Saturday and were taken to the home of Press Amyn. The funeral service was held on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. D. Clark, and the body was laid to rest in Macphail. He was an honorable citizen, industrious and honest. He accumulated a comfortable living, but reversed came and in his old age he sought a living by his toil.

MCDONALD.—The funeral service of the late Mrs. George W. McDonald was preached from the First Baptist church last afternoon. Rev. J. D. Knight, pastor, conducted the services. He paid a loving tribute to the deceased. She was a woman of noble traits of character and beloved by all. The song service was indeed beautiful, the selections being favorites of the deceased. They were: "Nearer My God To Thee," "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Asleep in Jesus." The church was crowded with relatives and friends who had come to pay their last tribute to the departed. All the deceased's children were present except one daughter, who resides in California, she being unable to reach here before the last sad rites. The children present were: Mrs. J. V. Brandon, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; F. P. McDonald and wife, of Chillicothe, Ohio; Mrs. J. W. Vaughan, of Olive Hill, and J. C. McDonald, Mt. Sterling. A sister, Mrs. James Jacobs, of Flemingsburg, was also present. The remains were laid to rest in the Ashland cemetery—Ashland News.

Mrs. McDonald lived for many years in this city where she reared her family. No better woman has ever gone out from us than she. She was a member of the Baptist Church, exemplary in her life. Her death is the cause of much sorrow to her friends.

Of Mrs. McDonald much could be said to encourage the poor and rich as well. For indeed her life behind which the sun ever shown in beauty. It was her desire that all men should be converted, and her Christian heart throbbed with gladness when any of hers were born of God. Those who knew her best admired her life work. The poor and faltering found in her a friend and righteous approval. In heavy clouds of adversity, in bright prosperity alike she saw the hand of Him who guides and rules. Peace to her ashes and comfort to the bereft.

STULLS.—Mrs. Elizabeth Stulls died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Russell, on Willow Street, on Saturday evening of pneumonia aged sixty-five years. She was a member of the Baptist church and had lived in this county for about ten years. Her husband was John Stulls. Funeral was preached at the residence Monday morning by Rev. W. J. Bolin.

STRODE.—Saturday, at her home in Winchester, Mrs. Wallace Strode (nee Miss Lida Lockman), died suddenly of heart disease. She leaves a young husband and 2 weeks old babe. Mrs. T. M. Farish and Miss Dorothea Myneir, of this city, attended the funeral.

MCDONALD.—Patrick McDonald was born in Ireland in May, 1840. At the age of 16 years he came to the United States. For about 34 years he has been a resident of this city. He married Miss Kate Gibson, of this county. To them were born 14 children, of whom 10 are living. Previous to the year 1889 he was for about 8 years a member of the City Council. For some years he was a grocer in this city, and also a breeder of fine horses. His health had been feeble for a short time. For medical treatment he was in Cincinnati, O., for 10 days, returning home on last Tuesday. His condition became serious by reason of a rapid development of kidney trouble, and on Friday, April 20, 1901, at 6 p. m. he died. The funeral service was held at the Catholic Church on Sunday morning and the body was laid to rest in St. Thomas Cemetery.

DARNELL.—The Brighton Register, of Brighton, Arapahoe county, Colorado, announces the death of Mrs. Mary B. Darnell at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Black, April 4th. She was a native of Madison county and was born in the year 1816. For a number of years she lived near Aaron's Run, this county, and moved to Missouri in 1853 and in 1873 removed to Golden, Col., and in 1883 to Brighton, where Mr. Darnell died in 1880. She leaves four children. She was a member of the First Baptist Church, Denver, and it is a comfort to know she was a Christian woman. Mrs. Darnell was a first cousin of Meadames Miles Kash, James Greene, S. W. Anderson and Mr. John H. Oldham, all of this county.

STRATTON.—Mrs. Martha Willers Stratton died in this city at the home of her son-in-law, G. L. Kirkpatrick on Sunday afternoon, April 21, 1901, after a sickness of seven days with pneumonia. She was born at Wilkesbarre, Pa., in 1819, hence was in her 82nd year. Her husband, Chester Stratton, died 23 years ago. During the residence of Mr. Kirkpatrick, in this city her home has been with her daughter. She leaves five children: William, of Parkersburg, Pa.; Wellington, of Hillsboro, O.; Mrs. Chas. Chappelier and Miss Jennie, both of Zanesville, O., and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, of our city. All except her son, William, who was kept away by high water, were present at the funeral. The funeral service will be conducted at the residence this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. George C. Abbott and the burial will be in Macphail. She had been a member of the Episcopal church for more than fifty years and was a most estimable woman, beautiful in graces.

There will be no preaching at the Southern Presbyterian Church next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Abbott will move his family here the first of May and will preach every Sunday after that time.

Rev. R. P. Johnston, eloquent, scholarly, and humble, has been called from the Third Baptist Church at St. Louis to the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, New York City, at a salary of $10,000 per year. Rev. Johnston's rise in the world has been wonderful. Left an orphan boy in Missouri, was a farm hand for his uncle while his sons took a graduating course, did everything well, ambitious, he told the writer that he had determined to go to the very top with men of letters and in his call to this church, one of New York City's most influential, with a yearly income of $145,000, it may be his ambition is at rest. With all the preference shown, Dr. Johnston has continued a loving spirit, humble and deeply impressed that it is the hand of God that leadeth. His education was attained by his own pluck and industry; graduating with honors in Missouri and taking a full course at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louis-

Christians, and that it has been fore-seeing enough to set apart one of its choicest men for work among the educated classes in this land—an example which older missions might profitably follow.—Editorial in the Indian Witness, Dec. 27, 1900, leading Methodist paper in India.

BLUES

Ever have them? Then we can't tell you anything about them. You know how dark everything looks and how you are about ready to give up. Somehow, you can't throw off the terrible depression.

Are things really so blue? Isn't your nerves, after all? That's where the trouble is. Your nerves are being poisoned from the impurities in your blood.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

purifies the blood and gives power and stability to the nerves. It makes health and strength, activity and cheerfulness.

This is what "Ayer's" will do for you. It's the oldest Sarsaparilla in the land, the kind that was old before other Sarsaparillas were known. This also accounts for the saying, "One bottle of Ayer's is worth three bottles of the ordinary kind."

THE WORLD,
Publisher, 215 N. York

Frank Brown, the New York bank defaulter, who is in Cuba, Honduras, writes a friend in Cincinnati that fortune is commencing to smile on him. His good luck commenced, he says, when he recovered from an attack of malarial fever, which, it was thought, would prove fatal. Dr. Virgil E. Remond, United States Consul at Cuba, gave him up for dead, but he pulled through, and is well again, but weak.

As soon as Brown recovered the Honduras Government appointed him Quarantine Inspector at Cuba. The position pays $80 in gold a month, and was secured for him through the influence of powerful new friends.

Brown has also gone into a project from which he expects to reap rich returns. When he wrote his partner was en route to Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras, to attempt to secure a valuable concession from the Government. As Brown's partner is a man of great influence he is confident they will secure the concession, and he says their yearly profits will not be less than $40,000 in gold. This leads him to talk rather hopefully of making good his stealings from the German National Bank and returning to Cincinnati.

The papers are printing the story of a Kansas negro who was stealing a ride on the trucks of a passenger train when the train ran into a trestle. The train stopped and the crew looked around to see the damage done and spied the negro. They fished him out and said: "What are you doing there?" "Why, I was riding 'dat mule," said the negro, and they took him in a passenger coach and carried him on his way with apologies.

Miss Elvira Synhor Miller, the gifted writer of the "Tattler" column in the Louisville Times has been appointed City Passenger Agent of the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis R. R. She enjoys the distinction of being the first woman Passenger Agent in the United States.

Those horrid fits of depression, melancholy, low spirits and sudden irritability, that sometimes afflict even good-tempered people, is due to the blood being permeated with black bile. Herbine will purify the blood, restore health and cheerfulness. Price 50 cents. Thos. Kennedy.

What Two Cents Will Do.

It will bring relief to sufferers from asthma or consumption, give relief to the worst cases. This is about what one dose of Foley's Honey and Tar costs. Isn't it worth a trial? F. C. Duerson.

We are bound to admit that a Republican Governor will tell the truth about a Republican fugitive.

The greatest healer of modern times is Banner Salve, for cuts, wounds, sores, piles and all skin diseases. It is guaranteed. F. C. Duerson.

Cuts, wounds, burns, sprains and bruises quickly heal if you apply Banner's Snow Liniment. Price, 25 cts. and 50 cents. Thos. Kennedy.

As in the spring time a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, so a woman's mind turns to thoughts of the millinery. That is why thoughts turn to Mrs. E. B. Wrenn's millinery at Lexington. See her advertisement.
